

Girl Scout Annual Cookie Sale Scheduled Feb. 18-26

From Feb. 18 through 26 the Annual Girl Scout Cookie Sale will be in progress. In an effort to make the Harbor Area Scouts more aware of what their dollars mean in a well-rounded program of camping, hiking and day camps, which can only be a reality if they can charge for each girl. Reservation will be made in advance and a deadline set. Preference will be given leaders and seniors who have been to the camp site.

A meeting of neighborhood cookie chairmen, troop chairmen and leaders at YWCA, Torrance on Thursday, Jan. 13 at 9:30 a.m., with Mrs. Carl E. Osterlind, leader of Troop 1293, and Harbor cookie chairmen will complete plans for the trip and instructions for the sale.

The outing is scheduled for Feb. 12 at 8:30 a.m. Eleven buses will be employed, with a charge for each girl. Reservation will be made in advance and a deadline set. Preference will be given leaders and seniors who have been to the camp site.

Among the local cookie chairmen attending will be Mrs. H.

L-S.P. Council

Dr. Nathaniel Showstack, psychiatrist clinical director, California Medical Facility, Terminal Island, was speaker at the January meeting of Lomita-San Pedro Council of PTA, held at Harbor City School on Tuesday, Jan. 4.

"The ideal attributes of a normal mind are happy, loving, fearless, efficient and realistic," said Dr. Showstack, and "The integration of feeling."

A. Campbell, Madrona; Mrs. Gerald Grubb, Torrance; Mrs. B. B. Ball, North Torrance; Mrs. Joe Deeble, Seaside Ranch; Mrs. W. C. Roberts, Walteria; and Jack Cannon, Perry El Nido.

thinking and behavior work toward a normal mind." Dr. Showstack also said that there were only 30 psychiatrists working in prisons in the United States.

Three musical numbers were presented by a duet, Misses Harry G. Foot Jr. and George Blair accompanied by Mrs. Darrell Dudley of Leland St. PTA.

Community singing, (part singing with special effects) was led by George D. Weeks, director of instrumental music at Narbonne High School. Mrs. James Willacy was accompanist.

Mrs. Francis Sebeto was raffish as council historian, replacing Mrs. Felix Lucene. Mrs. Harry T. Nishimoto and William D. Russell were elected to serve on the credentials committee of 10th District election. Mrs. Peter A. Brutti was also elected to serve on the election committee of 10th District election board.

Mmes. J. O. Powers, magazine chairman and Brutti, membership chairman, gave reports.

President's reports were given by Bandini, Barton Hill, Carbrillo and Fifteenth St. PTAs. Mrs. Gladys Robb was welcomed as new president of Barton Hill PTA, replacing Mrs. T. J. Garrity.

A meeting of the Lomita-San Pedro Council nominating committee is to be held at Homer Toberman, 131 N. Grand

186th Street

Featured on the program will be a first aid demonstration by two school bus drivers, and a film entitled "A Criminal is Born."

Fathers and men teachers will be hosts for the evening.

Ave. on Jan. 18 at 10 a.m. Harbor City PTA served luncheon at the conclusion of the meeting to council members and guests.

PTA Activities

Seaside

Seaside PTA will hold its regular meeting this Thursday evening, Jan. 13, at 7:30 o'clock in the auditorium of the school, Dr. Woodrow Whitten, from Pepperdine College, will bring four foreign exchange students to this meeting.

The foreign students will be Miss Inge-Sienmann from Homburg, Germany; Miss Joko Sato, from Japan; Mr. Mario Menella from Naples, Italy, and Mr. Ahmed Kooras from Iran. They will talk on background, comparison of schools and what they are studying in this country.

A question and answer period will follow their discussion. The musical part of the program will be furnished by groups from the Torrance High School Band. Child care will be provided.

259th Place

A "Do-It-Yourself" show by PTA mothers will be featured at the first 1955 PTA association meeting at 259th Pl. School on Thursday, Jan. 20 at 2 p.m. in the school auditorium. Under the direction of Mrs. J. W. Creager, program chairman, a fashion show will be given featuring the clothes made by mothers. The show will be narrated by Mrs. J. O. Powers and will feature casual and dressy clothes as well as knit wear. To be shown will be children's fashions.

There will also be other handwork displayed such as lampshades, upholstery, cake decorating, textile painting and others.

During the meeting, the A-6 graduation class will be presented. The room exhibit will be from the third grade and refreshments will be served by third grade mothers. Child care will be provided.

FERN GREENWOOD

A regular monthly meeting of the Fern-Greenwood PTA will be called to order at 2:30 this afternoon by the president, Mrs. R. E. Murphy. The pledge of allegiance will be led by Brownie Scout Troop 631, which is sponsored by the Fern-Greenwood PTA, under the leadership of Mrs. D. W. Barnard. A nominating committee of five members will be nominated from the floor. There will be reports concerning the recent TBAC luncheon, welfare work, magazines, and parent education. Members will be reminded of the series of lectures which are being given every Tuesday evening at the elementary school by Dr. Arthur Rietz, to which all are invited to attend.

The program, which will be under the direction of Mrs. Kerma Bowdoin, will present the two American Field Service Exchange students who are at present attending Torrance High School. Max Will, who is from Germany, and Lena Malstrom who is from Sweden, will compare life in the United States to life in their home-land.

HOWARD WOOD

A large audience last Thursday heard Mrs. Margiebell Brown, Torrance Unified School District psychologist, address the Howard Wood Elementary School PTA. Mrs. Brown said: "Parents and children should be comfortable together" and also stated that "when children are secure and happy, it makes the parents secure and happy." Mrs. Brown also showed colored slides of the methods of teaching handicapped children.

A nominating committee was elected to select persons for the 1955-56 year. On the committee is Mrs. L. E. Eckersley, Mrs. David Foot, Mrs. Grant Tidmarsh, Mrs. Meade Ferguson and Mr. Robert Evans, school principal. Mrs. H. Kell announced that the paper drive will be held on Thursday, Jan. 13 at the school. Papers and rags will be accepted for year gifts, 236th St., starting at 8 a.m.

Mrs. William Dickson, welfare chairman, reported that a family was clothed and food distributed during December. Mrs. M. D. Scoles, magazine chairman, was commended for her 100 per cent magazine subscriptions, which was rated on the honor roll in the December issue of the California Parent-Teacher magazine. Howard Wood PTA is one of two PTA units in the Torrance School District to achieve this award. Mrs. Lee Pollock, PTA president, announced that the new Cub Scout pack will have its first meeting Jan. 21 in Room 5 at Howard Wood School. The meeting will start at 7:30 p.m.

Refreshments will be served at the close of the meeting, and the fourth grade room mothers have asked all to stay and get acquainted. Hospitality will be under the direction of Mrs. D. D. Tuggle, Mrs. L. R. Brennan, and Mrs. Don Bradford.
